Benefits vary depending on the time of booking with the final offer end date being 4th November 2026. Minimum 5 and maximum 21 consecutive nights, selected Disney Resort hotels. Subject to exclusions, stay requirements, availability, changes, & conditions. Meals are non-transferable between party members and expire at midnight on the Disney Resort hotel reservation checkout date. Children aged 3-9 inclusive (at time of visit) must order from the children's menu where available. Disney Dining Plans are not valid for children under 3 years. Please note that the Disney Dining Plan entitlements for 2027 arrivals and locations may be subject to change. Disney Dining Plan meals provide everyone in the party (ages 3 and over) a specific number of meals and snacks per day per person based on the number of nights of a Disney Resort hotel stay. Certain menu items may incur an additional cost. An 18% gratuity will automatically be added to the bill equivalent to the Dining Plan value, for parties of six or more across dining locations and will be charged at the meal in the Resort. At Hoop-Dee-Do Musical Revue and Cinderella's Royal Table an 18% gratuity is included in the Dining Plans so no additional charges will apply unless you make orders not included in the Dining Plans. In all other circumstances gratuities are not mandatory but are customary and the amount is at the discretion of the guests. An additional form of payment is required if gratuities are added and if a credit card has not been provided at check-in for charging incidentals and other expenses. Advance restaurant reservations are strongly recommended and may be required at some Table Service restaurants participating in the Disney Dining Plan. Operating hours, menus, characters, entertainment, participating locations, components, and terms are subject to change without notice. The Walt Disney World Resort shall not be responsible for the non-utilisation of package components due to refurbishing, capacity, closures, inclement weather, or any circumstance beyond their control. Florida law permits the sale and service of alcohol products only to persons 21 years of age and older. The operators of the Walt Disney World Resort participate in Florida's Responsible Vendor program, and servers will verify age by requesting acceptable identification. Please note that all persons visiting from outside of the United States are required to present both a valid passport as well as another form of government-issued photo ID from their country of origin. Refillable mugs are eligible for refills from self-service beverage stations at any Disney Resort hotel Quick-Service location. TOP 10 TIPS

FOR FREE DINING & DRINKS IN WALT DISNEY WORLD RESORT

1.

Mobile ordering is now available at more than 60 locations throughout Walt Disney World Resort, so you can spend more time enjoying the magic of the Disney Parks!

2.

Don't forget! Alcoholic drinks[^] are included with each meal under the Dining Plans for guests 21 years and older. This includes beer or cider, wine or sangria, mixed drinks, and specialty cocktails. These beverages must be purchased with your meal from a dining location.

[^]Guests must be 21 years of age to consume alcohol, valid photo ID is required.

3.

Book your dining reservations as early as possible, as lots of restaurants can get booked up in advance. If you can't decide on a restaurant to choose from, you can head to the My Disney Experience website and can view all restaurants and the menus to pre-plan.

4.

Meals and snacks* can be used whenever you want during your Walt Disney World holiday. For example, if you have the Disney Table-Service Dining Plan, you can eat two Table-Service meals one day and three Quick-Service meals the next day. Or if you want to use up all of your Snacks in one day, that's fine too!

5.

During EPCOT International Food & Wine Festival, guests can redeem Snacks for “tasting portions” in selected booths around World Showcase. You can even use a Snack for a Starbucks – the best!

6.

You can use leftover Snacks in exchange for small, packaged snacks like Mickey-shaped Rice Krispie treats at certain locations. Simply look for the Dining Plan symbol, or ask, in Quick-Service restaurants, sweet and souvenir shops. These make great gifts, or a perfect snack for the plane home.

7.

You can keep up with restaurant reservations by checking your My Disney Experience app for any last minute availability as sometimes other parties plans change and booking slots can free up!

8.

Character Dining offers great value offering the chance to rest your feet and let the Characters come to your table, whilst enjoying a great meal! They are often buffets too, so offer lots of choice for all the family.

9.

Guests can use their Resort-Refillable Drink Mug at any Disney Resorts Collection hotel where it can be refilled at the self-service beverage station. Remember to keep it in your bag so you can fill up on-the-go.

10.

Disney Resort hotels offer incredible restaurants, so remember to check them out. The ones close by Magic Kingdom Park often offer incredible views, including one of the most popular, California Grill, where guests can catch the evening fireworks.
